Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

When you travel, you need to rest in a hotel. Usually there are friendly people who write your name and address, carry your bags to your room and present meals. In Japan, there are modern hotels where there are no people working at all. These hotels are huge buildings. All the work there is done by robots. When you first arrive at the hotel to check in, a robot tells you what to do. You should enter information about yourself on a computer. You don't need a key for your room because a computer in the door will recognize you. There is even a robot in each room which is able to turn lights on or off and answer simple questions.
