Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Snakes come in a variety of shapes and colours on our planet. They are very dangerous animals. They live in many different places as rivers, lakes, jungles and deserts. Snakes that live in the water are long and flat, but those who live in trees are long and thin with a tail. It helps the snake to hold the branch of the tree. There are no snakes on icy lands. They need the sun to keep themselves warm. Snakes haven't got any legs or arms, but they can move very fast. All kinds of snakes eat meat as birds and lizards. Snakes have strong fine skin. It is useful for making wonderful bags and shoes.
