People are interested in travelling for different reasons. Some people travel to entertain themselves. Others travel to do business. We should know a lot of things before travelling abroad. If you like to have a good summer holiday, you must choose a country that has fine and nice weather. Then, you should know how much money you will pay for the flight, for booking a room in a hotel, for renting a car and for your personal expenses.

You may need a visa to enter some countries, and you must have a passport of your own. Being tired of hard work, people are eager to attend places of entertainment with their children to amuse them and themselves as well. In fact, it may be more interesting and enjoyable if you know some foreign languages which you need to communicate with people outside your own country. Travelling is a great chance to change one's life because it can refresh and entertain one's mind too. I usually travel to France in my summer holiday. We stay for a fortnight there.
